Newman, Agent for Rebecca S. Newman, vs. L. R. Hest.

THE plaintiff, on affidavit, says the defendant is indebted to her, and so abscond, or conceals himself the ordinary process of law cannot be served on him, having obtained an original attachment against the estate of the defendant, made returnable on the 2d day of the month of June, 1884, at the Court House in the County of Blount, and the same having been levied on property: It is ordered by said Justice that the defendant appear before him at his office in the 2d District in McMinn county, on the 20th day of July next, or it will be proceeded with ex parte. further ordered that this notice be published four successive weeks in the Knoxville Whig.

Attachment.
C. Gillespie vs. Michael H. Stevens.

THE plaintiff, on affidavit, says the defendant is indebted to him, and that he so abscond that process cannot be served on him, having obtained original attachment against the estate of the defendant, made returnable before James Henry, a Justice of the Peace for Blount county, and the same having been levied on his property: It is ordered by said Justice that the defendant appear before him at his office in Louisville on the 1st day of August next, or it will be proceeded with ex parte. It is further ordered that this notice be published for four successive weeks in the Knoxville Whig.

Farm for Sale.
OFFER for sale my farm on Little Nine Mile Creek, in the lower end of Blount county, containing 55 acres, of which 130 are cleared. About 20 acres are set in clover. Most of the fences have been reset within the last two or three years. There are three dwelling houses, three strong springs, and a young orchard on the place. Also, a good and abundance of stable room. There is also a valuable water power of seventeen feet, fed by never-failing springs, which can be run to a wheel by a race cut entirely on the place without any back water or dam to interfere with neighboring property. Change of place, induced by a change of times, is my reason for selling.

KINGSTON STEAM MILLS.
HEAT, Wheat, Wheat wanted, and the highest market price paid. Proprietor to be for one week at Knoxville, Lamar House, No. 2. The Wheat to be red at the Mills, or at the banks of the Tennessee, or, or Clinch River, convenient to be boated.

NOTICE.

IN the month of November or December last, at the time the Court House in Knoxville was taken by the military authorities under General Burnside for a hospital for the sick, I had a writing desk with two drawers, folding top or top working on hinges, and a small box of pigeon holes, in one of the Clerk's offices of the Court House. During the time the Court House was used as a hospital, the office containing the desk was occupied by the medical department, and the desk was used by them. The desk contained a large number of valuable papers and some tax books and receipts, and various official and private papers of much value to me. Since the military have left the Court House, I have made diligent search in Knoxville, and made frequent inquiries of officers and others concerning the desk, and have not been able to find it or hear anything of it. If the papers are still in the desk it may be known by my name being on nearly all of them. They are valuable to me both as official and private papers. I will pay a liberal reward for any information which will enable me to find said desk and papers.

W. P. CRIPPEN,
Esq-Sheriff.

N. B.—Will the Surgeons in charge at London, Cleveland, Chattanooga and Dalton make an examination in their departments for the above desk, as it may have been taken down the country.
